FIFTH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

FEBRUARY 5, 2012

From Our Pastor...

Dear Parishioners,

I am happy to announce that St. Gilbert's will again this year host a transitional deacon for his internship in our parish. He will deacon at Sunday Masses, preach, baptize, perhaps assist with REP Sunday classes and RCIA. He began his internship on January 29th and will end the beginning of May. Welcome Jeffery Hennes when you see him and keep him in your prayers. His biography is found at right.

Peace,

Fr. Gene

M eet.....
Deacon Jeff Hennes

Please allow me, Deacon Jeff, to introduce myself to you.

I was born and raised in central Wisconsin and went to college in St. Paul, Minnesota, at the University of St. Thomas. Originally I pursued a degree in actuarial science (a.k.a. risk management and insurance), but halfway through I felt the Lord inviting me to the priesthood and I knew that I had to spend a year in seminary for discernment. I then moved across campus to St. John Vianney College Seminary.

What I thought would be only one year of discernment led to a completion of a philosophy degree in 2008, and now four years of theological studies here at Mundelein Seminary. God willing I will graduate from Mundelein on May 5, 2012, with my ordination to the priesthood being the following month on June 23 where afterwards I will serve my bishop in the Diocese of La Crosse. I look forward to becoming a part of the community here at St. Gilbert's. It certainly will be a joy getting to know you all.

May God bless you always,

Deacon Jeff

Rev. Mr. Jeffrey Hennes

2012 ARCHDIOCESAN ANNUAL CATHOLIC APPEAL "Be Imitators of Christ!"

Please spend some time this week reflecting on the Annual Catholic Appeal brochure which you received. While funding a number of Archdiocesan ministries, the appeal supports parish ministries that provide religious education to children, youth and adults in economically disadvantaged communities. It is also one of the largest philanthropic sources of financial assistance for Catholic schools in the Archdiocese.

Please remember that the Annual Catholic Appeal campaign is much different than a one time special collection. It is a pledge campaign where you can make a gift payable in installments.

As you review the work enabled by your contribution to the Annual Catholic Appeal, please reflect on God's gifts to you. He has given you all that you have. Your gifts to our parish, to the Archdiocese and to the work of the Church throughout the world are given in gratitude for the continuing gifts that God gives you.

Sometimes it is difficult to envision how one pledge can help an organization the size of our archdiocese, how it can make a real difference. But each pledge does make a difference because all parishes participate in the campaign and the gifts of many enable our Archdiocese to deliver needed ministries and services.

Our combined gifts not only signify our gratitude to God, they fund a significant portion of the work of the Archdiocese. After our parish goal of $61,365.00 is reached in cash, 100% of the additional funds come back to our parish to help to fund our needs.

If you received your pledge form in the mail, please complete it and mail it back or bring it to Mass next weekend. For those of you that did not receive a mailing or have not had time to respond to it, we will conduct our in-pew pledge process at all Masses next weekend.

Thank you for your prayerful consideration and generous response.

CONGRATULATIONS!

Please join us in welcoming into our Parish Family
those newly baptized during January:

James Terrence Krupa,
son of Thomas & Colleen

Lilliana Taylor Peterson,
daughter of Erik & Heather

DURING LENT THERE WILL BE NO BAPTISMS...

Lent will soon be here and is the final preparation time for those in the RCIA process who will be baptized. It is called the period of "Purification and Enlightenment".

For us as Church, we too are called to purify our lives through prayer, fasting and almsgiving. We are called to attune our lives more like Christ's – enlightenment.

Together we make our forty day journey to the life-giving waters of baptism — for us to renew our commitment — and for the Catechumens to be baptized.

The entire Church takes on this journey.

Because of Lent's preparatory character, including specific catechumenal rituals at several Masses, it would appear inconsistent to baptize adults, children or even infants during the Lenten season.

And so as a community, St. Gilbert refrains from baptizing during Lent: February 22 – April 8.

Fr. Sam

NOTE: You may still prepare for baptism — call the rectory (847 223 4731) to register for a Baptismal Preparation Session!

We invite you wholeheartedly to accept this invitation! Whether you sign up in advance (at the gift bearer book in the narthex) singly or with family, friends or neighbors, OR you are tapped on the shoulder to be our Gift Bearers — please take this invitation seriously as an honor and take pride in what you do! ## RON ROLHEISER'S COLUMN - Other Sheep Not Of Our Flock

I grew up with strong, conservative, Roman Catholic roots: the Baltimore Catechism, the Latin mass, daily rosary, daily mass if possible, and a rich stream of devotional practices. And that's a gift for which I'm deeply grateful.

But that wonderful grounding also brought with it a distrust of all religious things not Roman Catholic. I was taught that the Roman Catholic Church was the only true church and the only road to heaven; so much so that we were strongly discouraged and tacitly forbidden to participate in any Protestant church services. In fairness to that catechesis, we didn't believe that Protestants and other religious communities were doomed to eternal perdition, but we struggled mightily to articulate how this might take place. Among other things, we postulated a place we called Limbo, where sincere, non-Roman Catholics with good souls might spend eternity, happy but without God.

But as T.S. Eliot once wrote, "home is where we start from". And home is a good place to start from in terms of how we as faith communities, divided from each other, might better understand each other and each church's own particular relationship to Christ.

And often times the impetus for that comes not as much from biblical and theological insights as it does from an ecumenism of life. As we interact with each other we begin to sense that the question of who has access to God and Christ is infinitely more complex than can be captured in any theological formula. In John's Gospel (10, 16), Jesus says: I have other sheep too, that are not of this sheepfold. I must bring them also. They will listen to my voice, and there will be one flock and one shepherd.

I've learned the truth of that statement through personal experience. Within my nearly forty years in ministry I have met, befriended, and become a faith-companion to men and women from every type of denomination and religion: Protestants, Episcopalians, Anglicans, Evangelicals, Unitarians, small free Churches of all kinds, Jehovah Witnesses, Hindus, Moslems, and Buddhists. In all of these denominations and religious communities, I have met men and women of deep faith and outstanding charity.

And this has caused me to ask myself the question that Jesus once asked those who approached him and told him that his mother and family were outside the circle he was talking to, asking for him: "Who is my mother? And who are my brethren? And he stretched forth his hand toward his disciples, and said, Behold my mother and my brethren! For whosoever does the will of my Father which is in heaven, is my brother, and sister, and mother. (Matthew 12:46-50)

We tend to believe that "blood is thicker than water" and so we sometimes defend our own families, ethnic groups, countries, and churches, even when they do wrong things. What Jesus affirms is that "faith is thicker than blood" and, even more deeply, that faith is also thicker than denominational or religious affiliation.

St. Paul agrees: In his Epistle to the Galatians, he asks the question: Who is living inside the Holy Spirit? Who really has genuine faith? His answer: Those whose lives manifest charity, joy, peace, patience, kindness, goodness, faithfulness, gentleness, and chastity. The presence of these virtues manifests faith and Christ. Conversely, he warns that we shouldn't delude ourselves when our lives manifest, among other things, adultery, hatred, factionalism, strife, and envy. Our real brothers and sisters in faith are those whose lives manifest charity rather than selfishness, love rather than hatred, large hearts rather than selective sympathies, gentleness rather than hardness, and kindness rather than mean-spiritedness. Virtue trumps denominational identity.

I will always be a Roman Catholic, just as I will always be a member of my biological family, the Rolheisers, and my religious community, the Missionary Oblates of Mary Immaculate. I've been baptized into these families and baptism, as the old catechisms rightly teach, leaves an indelible mark on our souls. These will always be my families; but they may not be my only loyalty. I have other families too, not of these sheepfolds: non-Roman Catholics, non-Rolheisers, non-Oblates. And I don't love the Roman Catholic Church, my biological family, or the Oblates of Mary Immaculate any less because of this. Paradoxically, I love them more.

When Jesus asks the question: "Who is mother and brother and sister to me?" he answers that whoever does the will of God is his true mother, true brother, and true sister. But, as the Gospels writers have at that point already strongly emphasized, his biological mother, Mary, was the first person who fit that description. Hence, he is not denigrating his mother, but re-establishing her worth and importance at a higher place.

The same should be true for us in our relationship to the faith families into which we have been baptized, even as we open up our hearts more and more to embrace those others who are not of our fold. Faith is thicker than blood - and thicker even than religious affiliation.

S T E W A R D S H I P

"Rising very early before dawn, he left and went off to a deserted place, where he prayed...He told them, 'Let us go on to the nearby villages that I may preach there also.

For this purpose have I come.'" - Mark 1:35, 38

Through today's Gospel reading we see a perfect example of stewardship. Jesus gives His time to doing all that God wishes - healing the sick and preaching. Yet Jesus also makes time to be alone in prayer. It is only through prayer, through spending time with God, that any of us can find the strength to do all that God wishes us to do. Be sure to find time this week to be with God.
