

THEOLOGY-ON-TAP
A SUMMER PROGRAM FOR YOUNG ADULTS IN THEIR 20s & 30s

This summer we want you to join the young adults of our parish in a common search for meaning, wisdom and shared insight. Our parish will be sponsoring Theology-on-Tap.

We've selected important topics and invited challenging speakers to lead us in a summer search as we ask the reasons why. Join us.

- July 10: Pub Night with speaker Mr. Jim Ivers
Jim Ivers will be speaking on the topic Faith: A context for Our Blessings and Burdens. He has a Masters in Arts, Organizational Development from Loyola University. Mr. Ivers is a co-founder and has served as the Executive Director of the Retreat & Conference Center in Woodstock, IL. He has also served as the Director of Alpha Consultants.
- July 17: Fiesta Night with speaker Mr. Bob Kolatorowicz
Bob Kolatorowicz will be speaking on the topic The Roman Missal: What's Changing at Mass and Why? He directs programming in adult spirituality and social justice at Old St. Patrick's Church. Mr. Kolatorowicz is often invited to address church groups as well as lead workshops and retreats. Bob has earned degrees in philosophy, urban ethnic studies, and theology.
- July 24: Mediterranean Night with speaker Dr. Al Gustafson
Al Gustafson will be speaking on the topic Give us This Day our Daily Bread. He is a founder and past president of the Career Transitions Center of Chicago, and the president of a private foundation. Dr. Gustafson is a past director of the Crossroads Center for Faith & Work at Old St. Patrick's Church. He holds a Doctorate of Ministry from Catholic Theological Union.
- July 31: College Tailgate Night with Mr. John Paul Graziano
John Paul Graziano will be speaking on the topic The Challenges of Healthy Christian Relationships: How Failure Can Lead to a Better Understanding of Love. He is a Program Coordinator for Youth Build in Lake County, an organization focused on bringing education opportunities, job training, and life skills to low-income young men and women. Mr. Graziano grew up in Wheaton, Illinois and is a graduate of Benet Academy and Georgetown University. Join us in your college's Apparel!
- August 7: Finale: Mass and Picnic downtown with the Cardinal
