EASTER SUNDAY OF THE RESURRECTION OF THE LORD—MARCH 31, 2024

Today's readings:

Ps 118:1-2, 16-17, 22-23

Col 3:1-4

Jn 20:1-9

HE HAS RISEN!

The Lord has risen! Alleluia! Our rejoicing at Easter Time acknowledges that Christ's light has conquered darkness. Jesus came to do God's will; he paid the ultimate price, and now we proclaim with joy his resurrection. Our Lord prepared his disciples for his death and resurrection, telling them, "A little while, and you will no longer see me, and again a little while, and you will see me" (John 16:16). Jesus' rising from the dead should have come as no surprise to the disciples, yet they were surprised. As today's Gospel proclaims, "They did not yet understand the scripture that he had to rise from the dead." Even though we understand, we still need to be open to seeing with the eyes of our hearts so that we can embrace the resurrected Christ.

After the forty days of penitence of Lent, we celebrate the light defeating the darkness for fifty days. During Easter Time, we are invited to meditate on how our actions allow us to be light for others. How do you aid others to dispel the darkness surrounding them? Do you carry the message that Jesus is alive? Are you willing to shout it? When we share the light of Christ that permeates our lives, we show appreciation for the faith that we have been given. Through Jesus Christ, God has fulfilled his promise and given us eternal life. Let us not be afraid to rejoice in the new life we have been given.

ARCHDIOCESE OF CHICAGO

Dear Sisters and Brothers in Christ,

The resurrection of Jesus stands at the center of our faith. We believe, as Saint Paul says, that Jesus "died for our sins and rose for our justification." He entered the very darkest corners of human existence, took our pain, suffering, and death upon himself, and then drew us into the fullness of risen life.

As we celebrate the Lord's resurrection this Easter 2024, we are clearly aware of those dark corners of human existence that Jesus took upon himself. With troubled hearts, we watch war and violence unfold in the Holy Land, in Ukraine, in parts of Africa, and in our own city of Chicago. We know the crippling effects of climate change and the natural disasters that have affected so many people throughout the world. We struggle with the social and political polarization that threatens our life together.

We step back from all of this, and we can surely affirm that we need the transforming and life-giving power of the Resurrection. We also stand together as a church, a synodal church, that journeys together and reclaim our faith and trust in the power of the Risen Lord who makes all things work for the good for those who love him. We stand together in our often broken and wounded world to witness hope to all humanity, to proclaim that God's life and not death will have the last word.

May this feast of Easter be a graced moment to rediscover and reclaim our great faith and hope in Jesus Christ, risen from the dead, who goes before us and leads us home.

Sincerely yours in Christ,

Blase Cupic, S.J.
Archbishop of Chicago

PRAYING FOR PEACE

Let us pray for our communities, our cities and the world, especially Eastern Europe; For strength and peace in the face of war and violence; For openness and welcome to refugees; For hope and courage in the face of doubt and fear. Amen.

OCIA JOURNEYS OF FAITH
(ORDER OF CHRISTIAN INITIATION OF ADULTS)

The OCIA Elect have had a busy Lenten season in which they have found strength in God's grace and support in our community's prayers and example.

They participated in the Scrutinies on the third, fourth and fifth Sunday of Lent where they heard three Gospel stories providing different encounters with Jesus.

Scrutiny #1 was the gospel story of when Jesus meets a Samaritan woman at the well. They reflected on Jesus as living water.

Scrutiny #2 is the gospel story of Jesus healing a man born blind which shows Christ as the Light of the World.

Scrutiny #3 was the gospel story Jesus raising his friend Lazarus back to life effectively showing the Elect Christ as the Resurrection and the Life.

The Scrutinies are a time for the Elect to look inside themselves to find anything that may be keeping them from Christ. They look to Christ to heal those weaknesses and strengthen them when faced with temptation. Following the third scrutiny, Seminarian Michael led us in praying the Stations of the Cross in the Chapel.

Please keep our Elect in your prayers as they are fully welcomed into the Church and complete their sacraments this Easter Vigil.

Blessed Easter!

Dear People of Saint Gilbert's,

As we joyfully celebrate this Sunday of the Resurrection of the Lord, we recall the simple but powerful words of Pope Francis from his first Easter homily to the whole Church—

Let the risen Jesus enter your life, welcome him as a friend, with trust: he is life!

If up till now you have kept him at a distance, step forward. He will receive you with open arms.

If you have been indifferent, take a risk: you won't be disappointed.

If following him seems difficult, don't be afraid, trust him, be confident that he is close to you, he is with you and he will give you the peace you are looking for and the strength to live as he would have you do.

On behalf of Fr. Pawel, Fr. Gus, Fr. Britto, the deacons and staff of Saint Gilbert, I extend blessings and warmest best wishes to you and your loved ones for this glorious season of Easter.

Peace of the Risen Lord,

Fr. John

SECOND READING: Paul taught the believers in Colossae to anticipate the return of the resurrected Jesus. How does your family celebrate Easter Sunday?

GOSPEL: Mary Magdala, Peter, and the Beloved Disciple were the first to experience the joy and mystery of the empty tomb. Do you recall when you first started believing in the resurrection of Jesus?

Today as we celebrate the feast of Easter we find the challenge of also seeing and believing the resurrection that comes through our own lives of self-sacrifice which brings new life to others.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering and you give them Easter hope and joy. God Bless You!

GOSPEL

Mary Magdalene was surprised when she found the empty tomb of Jesus. She ran and told Peter and John that his body was gone. Peter and John ran to the tomb. They found no body, just strips of cloth. One piece was the cloth that covered the face of Jesus. Peter and John knew that Jesus was not in the grave, even though they did not understand what it meant to rise from the dead.

PRAYER

Jesus, you died and rose from the dead so I can share your life on earth and in heaven. Thank you.
