God of abundant and generous mercy,
we gratefully acknowledge the many gifts
you have given us across the years
from the sacrifice of generations before us.

And so, we confidently trust that you will walk
with us into the future.

We echo the words of the Blessed Virgin Mary:
truly, your mercy is from generation to generation.

Help us now to respond generously to your gifts,
as we support our Church in the Archdiocese of Chicago
and work to bring faith forward
for the generations that follow us.

By your grace and help, let our gifts be a blessing
for our children, our grandchildren,
and those who follow them.

Through Christ our Lord.

This program serves 26 students, ranging in age from 6 to 16, from St. Gilbert and neighboring parishes. *If you have any questions about the program or to volunteer, email or call Sr. Donna. We need additional volunteers!

The Apostles beg Jesus for increased faith, but they don't really want faith. They want a magical feeling of certainty that requires no effort. Real faith must grow and sprout roots in fertile soil. Real faith requires attention and work. Are we willing to work?

GOSPEL

God wants you to have faith and trust him completely. Jesus said, "If your faith is as small as a mustard seed, you can tell a tree to grow in the ocean, and it will." A mustard seed is smaller than a freckle. You trust your school bus will go to your school. You have faith that clowns will make you laugh. You just need a little bit of faith and God will be there for you.

PRAYER

Lord, I believe you will help me.

Thank you to everyone who participated in the Installation Liturgy of Fr. Mario P. Stefanowski on Saturday, September 20th, 2025.

READING 1 HABAKKUK 1:2-3; 2:2-4

How long, O LORD? I cry for help
 but you do not listen!
 I cry out to you, "Violence!"
 but you do not intervene.
 Why do you let me see ruin;
 why must I look at misery?
 Destruction and violence are before me;
 there is strife, and clamorous discord.
 Then the LORD answered me and said:
 Write down the vision clearly upon the
 tablets,
 so that one can read it readily.
 For the vision still has its time,
 presses on to fulfillment, and will not disappoint;
 if it delays, wait for it,
 it will surely come, it will not be late.
 The rash one has no integrity;
 but the just one, because of his faith, shall live.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

*If today you hear his voice, harden
 not your hearts.*

READING 2 2 TIMOTHY 1:6-8, 13-14

Beloved:
 I remind you, to stir into flame
 the gift of God that you have through the imposition of my hands.
 For God did not give us a spirit of cowardice
 but rather of power and love and self-control.
 So do not be ashamed of your testimony to our Lord,
 nor of me, a prisoner for his sake;
 but bear your share of hardship for the gospel
 with the strength that comes from God.

Take as your norm the sound words that you
 heard from me,
 in the faith and love that are in Christ Jesus.
 Guard this rich trust with the help of the Holy Spirit
 that dwells within us.

GOSPEL LUKE 17:5-10

The apostles said to the Lord, "Increase our faith."
 The Lord replied,
 "If you have faith the size of a mustard seed,
 you would say to this mulberry tree,
 'Be uprooted and planted in the sea,' and it would obey you.

"Who among you would say to your servant
 who has just come in from plowing or tending sheep in the field,
 'Come here immediately and take your place
 at table'?"
 Would he not rather say to him,
 'Prepare something for me to eat.
 Put on your apron and wait on me while I eat
 and drink.
 You may eat and drink when I am finished'?"
 Is he grateful to that servant because he did what was commanded?
 So should it be with you.
 When you have done all you have been commanded,
 say, 'We are unprofitable servants;
 we have done what we were obliged to do.'"

1st Reading

The prophet Habakkuk is encouraged to be patient and trust in the Lord's timing. Is patience one of your virtues?

2nd Reading

Paul urges Timothy to live his life of faith with courage and self-control, especially in difficult situations.

How might you support a family member or friend struggling this week?

Gospel:

Jesus taught the Apostles that one way to increase your faith is to have the attitude of a servant. How would you describe your attitude most days?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

During a conversation about good stewardship of money and time, my daughter shared that sometimes doing the best thing was so hard for her to do. It wasn't always a matter of right and wrong, black and white, but a matter of better and best. I began to reflect on the truth of her statement. When confronted with a decision, we can sometimes be given a choice of good, better, and best. We fool ourselves into believing that the good choice is not a bad one, so it must be enough. However, we have essentially placed a limit on our generosity or commitment with our false sense of good stewardship.

Jesus calls us in different ways every day. Sometimes the cost to us is clear. Yet sometimes there is no clear metric. When called to love, how much love is enough? When someone needs our time, how many hours is enough? When a small gift will bring about a positive outcome, what could a larger gift accomplish?

Don't be fooled by Jesus' teaching of the mustard seed. He was speaking to those who were caught up in concerns of status, uncertainty of heart, and lack of true faith. Jesus taught with parables and then demonstrated true faith and generosity by his crucifixion. Perhaps the mustard seed of faith allows us to move mountains and trees so that we may see through to the horizon of the cross. In the cross, we find the real metric of love and generosity that is for all who follow Him.

FEATURING:

This insightful book on the priesthood is based on a series of six talks that Cardinal Schoenborn addressed to an international group of priests in Ars, the village where the famed St. John Vianney served as pastor. Vianney, known as the Cure of Ars, is the patron of the Year For Priests announced by Pope Benedict XVI. In these talks, the Cardinal summarized the vocation, challenge, and joy of the priesthood, drawing on the life of the Cure of Ars, the writings of St. Therese of Liseux, St. Faustina Kowalska, and many other saints and holy people.
