SECOND READING: Paul expresses his gratitude to the Thessalonians for their openness to hear and believe the word of God taught by them. Who in your life might be open to hearing the word of God from you?

GOSPEL: Jesus challenged the crowds and his disciples to be as servants to each other, acting always in humility. How might you be a servant to someone at work or at home?

VOCATION PRAYER

Lord Jesus,

We beg you for good and holy priests.

In every age you call men to follow you as servants and shepherds of your people.

Open their hearts to your call and give them the courage to follow you. Be their rock of refuge and their light as they discern.

Help us to support them on their journey, and to love them as your disciples.

We thank you for all that you are and all that you do.

In your name we pray.

Amen.

In the Gospel today, we hear the good news that when we keep our focus on God and serve one another, God exalts us!

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul Poor Box, please say a special prayer for the poor who have no one to pray for them.

For basic essentials of living assistance inquiries, contact the St. Vincent DePaul Society at 224-360-9161.

GOSPEL

Do not be a phony baloney. Do not tell others to follow rules that you do not follow. Be honest with yourself. If something is wrong for others, it is wrong for you. If it is wrong for your friends to steal, it is wrong for you. If it is wrong to hit others, then do not hit your friend in anger. Practice what you preach. Know and follow God's commandments so he will be happy.

PRAYER

Lord, teach me to practice what I preach.

FEATURING:

Christ's teaching about the Eucharist was not reserved solely for the Last Supper. Rather, this profound mystery is the crescendo of Jesus' entire ministry: all his work in Galilee prepared for and pointed to the Eucharist. Join Dr. Tim Gray in Bread of Life: The Eucharist in Galilee for an exciting five-part series about Jesus' teaching on the Eucharist.
