"I will give you the keys to the kingdom of heaven. Whatever you bind on earth shall be bound in heaven; and whatever you loose on earth shall be loosed in heaven." - Mt 16:19

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

FIRST READING: The Lord condemns Shebna (the master of King Hezekiah's palace) for ignoring Isaiah's prophetic warning and gives to Eliakim the authority and honor that belonged to Shebna. What helps you stay focused on following God's commandments?

SECOND READING: Paul celebrates the wisdom and knowledge — the mystery — of God. If you could ask God one question, what would it be?

GOSPEL: In Peter confessing Jesus as "the Messiah, the Son of the living God," Jesus gives him the authority to hold the keys to the kingdom of heaven. How do you use authority in your life?

Vicariate I Ministry Commission

BEREAVEMENT MINISTRY TRAINING 2023

The Corporal works and the Spiritual works of mercy are at the core of who we are as Catholics Christian. They not only identify who we are as a people: charitable, caring, compassionate and generous; they also identify the behaviors which help us to live our lives as true disciples of Jesus Christ. An unknown author was quoted as saying: "Grieving is a normal response to loss. However, God does not abandon us in our darkest hours. God, who is Light, shines His light of comfort into our hurting hearts."

All of us have or will experience the tragic loss of a friend or loved one in our lives. If you have been a recipient of the care and support shared by a bereavement minister or just want to help others who may be suffering, this is your opportunity. This training is designed to benefit both new and experienced bereavement ministers. Experienced ministers can help provide meaningful discussion and collaboration with new ministers.

Date: Saturday, September 9, 2023

Program Presenters: Deacon Joe and Diane Yannotta

Place: St. Edna Catholic Church
2525 N. Arlington Heights Rd., Arlington Heights, IL 60004

PRAYING FOR PEACE

Let us pray for our communities, our cities and the world, especially Eastern Europe; For strength and peace in the face of war and violence; For openness and welcome to refugees; For hope and courage in the face of doubt and fear. Amen.

Dear Saint Gilbert Parishioners,
 Our parish is one of three Archdiocese of Chicago parishes that will host the visit of a relic of St. Jude the Apostle. The visit will take place on Tuesday, September 12th, beginning at 1PM in the church, continuing with 7PM Mass in honor of St. Jude, and veneration continuing until 10PM.

The relic, which is usually displayed at the parish church of San Salvatore in Lauro in central Rome, is on loan to various churches and shrines in this country through a special arrangement with the Vatican and the Vicariato di Roma, the local Church of the city of Rome. Fr. Carlos Martins accompanies the relic and oversees the visits, and will be here to celebrate the 7PM Mass.

We have been advised that interest in viewing the relic will be great and to anticipate large numbers of visitors. All are encouraged to make time for this very special prayer opportunity with the Apostle of the Impossible.

Peace,
Fr. John

Question: Why are Catholics required to give money to the Church?

Answer: Offering money and other goods to God and the Church is, before all else, a statement of gratitude. We see this when we look at how our spiritual ancestors showed their gratitude to God for the gifts they had received (e.g. Genesis 14:18-20 and Genesis 28:16-22). One of the ways they offered thanks to God was through a practice called "tithing," in which 10 percent of a person's goods (crops, livestock, money, etc.) were given back to God.

Today, the practice of tithing — giving 10 percent — is still common in many Protestant communities, but it is not required for Catholics. Instead, the Catechism of the Catholic Church teaches us that, "The faithful also have the duty of providing for the material needs of the Church, each according to [their] own abilities" (no. 2043). This means that, although we are not bound to practice "tithing" in the traditional sense, we do share a responsibility to share our money or other resources with our parish communities. Like our spiritual ancestors, we give as a sign of our gratitude for the many gifts that God has given to us. Beyond this, we also share our resources with other Catholic organizations to help them finance their ministries, to continue and grow their outreach to the poor and the needy, and to provide just wages for their employees.

How much we give depends on our individual circumstances, but since we share a responsibility for the programs, outreach, and health of our parish communities and Catholic organizations, this question gives us a wonderful opportunity to ask some important questions about the quality of our giving and what our priorities are. Remember, we are only stewards of our time, talents, and treasures and as the First Letter of Peter reminds us, "As each one of you has received a gift, use it to serve one another as good stewards of God's varied graces" (4:10). ©LPI

FAMILIES ON A MISSION – A FAMILY SERVICE AND MISSION EXPERIENCE

This program is meant to give families an opportunity to have their children work with them in service for the community's benefit. It is a parish-based, service learning, immersion experience which connects families with each other, with service opportunities in their local community, and with the great tradition of Catholic social teaching.

Kathleen Karrigan and Sr. Donna Schmitt invite families who are interested in doing service together for our community to sign up for the program scheduled for Saturday, October 28th, beginning in the Multi-Purpose Room at 9:00 am. The families with children from age 3 through High School are welcome to come to participate in activities, to pray together, and then to travel to complete the service assigned to them. Deadline is September 10th for families to volunteer to participate. Call Kathleen Karrigan, 847-223-5875 or Sr. Donna 847-223-3071 to register.

You can also sign up through Google Forms at <https://forms.gle/9bUdMgqHHq9p9ghr8>.

Like Peter in today's Gospel, we can find that when we open our eyes to see, our ears to hear and our hearts to experience Jesus' presence in our daily lives, God reveals himself to us.

Have you considered answering the call to help serve the poor by joining the Society of St. Vincent de Paul?

Thank You!

For basic essentials of living assistance inquiries, contact the St. Vincent DePaul Society at 224-360-9161.

GOSPEL

In this Gospel, Jesus asked his disciples not to tell anyone that he was the Christ, the Messiah, the Savior. It is hard to keep a secret. When you are told a secret, the first thing you want to do is tell everyone you meet. If you were blind and Jesus made you see, it would be difficult to keep it a secret. You would probably run here and there telling everyone.

PRAYER

Jesus, now I can tell everyone that you are Christ, our Savior.

BREAKING OPEN THE WORD... This group meets after the 8:00am Mass on Thursdays in Chapel Hall. Our time together is spent in reflecting on the Sunday's Gospel, sharing our thoughts, and prayer. The next session is August 31st.

FEATURING:

Mike Aquilina, author of over forty books and an expert on early Church history, shares how the faithful witness of Christian families amidst the trials and persecutions of the Church in the first centuries of its existence led to the rapid expansion of Christianity and the conversion of the Roman Empire. He relates how fidelity to prayer, faithful attendance of Sunday Mass, and love of neighbor offered a powerful witness to a culture that, in many respects, is similar to our own.
