OSB, SJ, RSM; DC;
OFM, OP; OSF...

Question: What is the meaning of the letters that professed religious have after their names?

Answer: The Catholic Church includes hundreds of religious communities. The priests, religious brothers, religious sisters, and nuns of these communities (which are often referred to as “religious orders”) are committed to particular spiritual traditions and often to a particular charism (such as teaching, healthcare, social work, or pastoral care).

To help identify a person as a member of a particular religious community, the custom developed of including post-nominal letters that provide a sort of shorthand for the name of the community that the priest, brother, sister or nun is part of. So, for example OSB after a person’s name would indicate that they are a member of the Order of St. Benedict (the Benedictines), just as SJ would indicate that a priest or brother is a member of the Society of Jesus (the Jesuits) or RSM would show that a woman is a Sister of Mercy.

Other common examples include:

DC = Daughters of Charity

OCist = The Order of Cistercians

OCD = Order of Discalced Carmelites

OFM = The Order of Friars Minor (Franciscans)

OFM Cap = The Capuchin Franciscans

OP = The Order of Preachers (Dominicans)

OSF = Franciscan Sisters

SC = Sisters of Charity

SSND = School Sisters of Notre Dame

SVD = Society of the Divine Word (Divine Word Missionaries).

Dear Parishioners of St. Gilbert,

All of us at Project Love want to sincerely thank you for all your hard work in offering our Mother's Day and Father's Day cards in your parish. The sale went exceptionally well, considering it was the first year in offering them, and the proceeds will help us continue to help more pregnant women in need.

Thanks so much again. May God bless you for your generosity!

FAMILIES ON A MISSION – A FAMILY SERVICE AND MISSION EXPERIENCE

Goal: Our Common Home, Caring for God’s Creation.

Families on a Mission is one of the most exciting service immersion innovations to become available in recent years. It grew out of the consistent and growing need to provide more opportunities for families to grow in their faith together. This is meant to give families an opportunity to have their children work with them in service for the community’s benefit. It is a parish-based, service learning, immersion experience which connects families in a particular parish with each other, with service opportunities in their local community, and with the great tradition of Catholic social teaching. Faith formation research concludes that the Catholic community is strengthened when families serve together, pray together, and engage in faith discussions together.

Kathleen Karrigan and Sr. Donna Schmitt invite families who are interested in doing service together for our community to sign up for the program scheduled for Saturday, October 28th, beginning in the Multi-Purpose Room at 9:00 am. The families with children from age 3 through High School are welcome to come to participate in activities, to pray together, and then to travel to complete the service assigned to them. Returning from the service, the families will again gather for a closing activity, Prayer, and lunch. There will be service opportunities for the Families in our community. Deadline is October 7th for families to volunteer to participate. Call Kathleen Karrigan, 847-223-5875 or Sr. Donna 847-223-3071 to register.

You can also sign up through Google Forms at <https://forms.gle/9bUdMgqHHq9p9ghr8>.
