24TH SUNDAY IN ORDINARY TIME

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." - Mt 18:21-22

Excerpts from the Lectionary for Mass ©2001, 1998, 1970 CCD.

©LPI

FIRST READING: Sirach teaches that the Lord desires us to be forgiving and merciful to each other. In doing so, the Lord will show us mercy and forgiveness in return. To whom could you show mercy and forgiveness this week?

SECOND READING: Paul instructed the Romans that Jesus was the Lord of all — both the living and the dead. How should this reality impact our daily living?

GOSPEL: Jesus tells the parable of the unforgiving servant to teach the disciples the importance of compassion and forgiveness, especially toward those who sin against you. How do you deal with friends or co-workers who have wronged you?

Meet..... Seminarian Matt Smith

Hello St. Gilbert Parishioners,

My name is Matt Smith and I want to introduce myself to you as I begin my assignment here as a seminarian for the next four years.

Background: I have one younger brother and was born and raised in Mason City, Iowa. If you've ever seen "The Music Man", this is the town where it takes place and where Meredith Wilson grew up. After attending Mason City High School ('19) I went to Loras College ('23) in Dubuque, Iowa, majoring in Philosophy and Public Relations. I entered seminary my sophomore year of college, studying for the Archdiocese of Dubuque. I just began my first year at Mundelein Seminary four weeks ago.

Passions: I am passionate first and foremost about deepening my relationship with God and His Church in prayer. I am also passionate about running, calligraphy, organizing/decorating, playing Catan (board game), most anything outdoors, and building relationships with people in general.

I want to ask you to pray one Hail Mary for me that I may be faithful as I begin here at St. Gilbert's and that I would be a faithful and holy priest one day. I look forward to meeting you all and I hope that you will come to know and experience the love God has for you more deeply in my time here.

—Matt Smith

Question: Are Catholics allowed to visit psychics? Why or why not?

Answer: It's part of human nature to experience some sense of unease and fear about the future. This can lead some people to seek out the services of psychics or consult horoscopes or turn to other occult practices or resources (e.g. Ouija boards or tarot cards). The Catechism of the Catholic Church is very clear that Catholics should avoid such practices: "Consulting horoscopes, astrology, palm reading, interpretation of omens and lots, the phenomena of clairvoyance, and recourse to mediums all conceal a desire for power over time, history, and, in the last analysis, other human beings, as well as a wish to conciliate hidden powers. They contradict the honor, respect, and loving fear that we owe to God alone" (no. 2116).

Despite the uncertainties we might feel, we are called to have faith and trust in God, confident of God's desire for what is best for us. This means that we are called to surrender, to pray and to reflect on how we can best move into the future in hope, knowing that God is with us.

Children's Liturgy of the Word... is looking for teens and adults who would like to help this important Sunday ministry with two different positions:

1) reading scripture to the children — this ministry is a great place to share your talent of reading out-loud or develop your skills, especially if you've ever thought of becoming a lector in the parish; and 2) sharing a reflection about the Gospel with the children — helping them learn about the Gospel and how it applies to their lives (reflect). There are prepared reflections to share, so you don't have to create your own material!

Readers or Reflectors are asked to do so once a month if possible, unless you choose to help more frequently! More information is available after the 9am & 11am masses THIS Sunday, September 17th. If you're not sure and want to see what this ministry is like, you are welcome to join us during mass!

Ready to celebrate the Sacrament of Baptism for your child? Call the Parish Office to register for a Baptism Preparation Session:
847-223-4731

A group of seminarians will be offering a Eucharistic Holy Hour on Thursday, September 21st, from 4:30-5:30pm in the Saint Gilbert Chapel. Evening Prayer will begin at 5:15pm. All are welcome to join in this prayer opportunity.

Bethlehem Nativity Products

Dear Brothers and Sisters in Christ,

Bethlehem Nativity Products will be visiting your parish on behalf of St. Catherine Catholic Parish of Bethlehem and the Christian families in Bethlehem. For centuries, the Christian and Catholics in Bethlehem have earned a living by carving olive wood religious art to sell to visiting pilgrims. Now a days not so many pilgrim groups or tourists are visiting journeying to the Holy Land today, making it difficult for Catholic artisans to support their families by the dignified work of Christ's birth.

During our visit of your parish, we will have hand carved Nativity scenes, Ornaments, Statues, Crosses and much more beautiful olive wood hand carved religious items. Please consider purchasing a piece of art from the Holy Land to support your fellow Catholics who choose to stay and protect the Holy sites where Jesus himself lived. Your purchase will make a difference in the lives of many Catholic families. Please support this noble cause. www.bethlehemnativity.com.

We accept cash, personal checks, all credit cards and monthly installment payments as well. Thanks for your generosity.

GOSPEL

Jesus says to forgive each other seventy times seven or 490 times. That's forgiving once each day for more than a year. Put 490 jelly beans in a gallon "Forgiveness Jug." Each time you forgive someone, eat a jelly bean. When you realize that God has forgiven you, it is easier to forgive others from your heart. God fills you with his love, which is even better than jelly beans. Then you can forgive without holding a grudge.

PRAYER

Lord, help me forgive other people completely and quickly.

Peter approached Jesus and asked him, "Lord, if my brother sins against me, how often must I forgive? As many as seven times?" Jesus answered, "I say to you, not seven times but seventy-seven times." — Mt 18:21-22

Scripture from the Lectionary for Mass ©2011, 1998, 1970 CCC.

FEATURING:

Our world is deeply troubled: wars, terrorism, political and social unrest, family breakdown, mass migrations, moral confusion, and chaos. In the Church: faith has diminished, doctrines are denied, moral teachings ignored, scandals in the clergy cause real dismay and doubt.

Featuring commentary and insights by Cardinal Raymond Burke and Bishop Mark Davies, and appealing to proven methods from the Church's history, this film sets forth a powerful blueprint for revival in the Catholic Church, and thus a renewal in families, communities, and the world. It focuses on five key areas to drive this renewal: Catechesis, Liturgy, the Gospel of Life, Sanctity, and Mission. Also includes commentary from church leaders Fr. Marcus Holden, Fr. Andrew Pinsent, Joanna Bogle, and Jacob Phillips, and inspiring young adults speaking about their Catholic faith and trust in Christ.
