Saint Gilbert Parish Bulletin: Send articles for consideration in an electronic file to:
bulletin@stgilbert.org Thank you!

Upcoming Deadline:

Thursday, January 15th for January 25th Bulletin

Dear Saint Gilbert Parishioners and Friends,

►As we conclude the joyful season of Christmas, I would like to once again take a moment to thank so many of you who made this year's celebrations beautiful and uplifting.

►I'm grateful to Angela Rendek for leading the choir, accompanists and congregation in music and worship during the Christmas season. Thank you to Kay Karrigan, Paul Sheeris and God's Garage Band and Singers for the gift of their uplifting music as well. Our music ministers spent long hours planning and rehearsing seasonal music, performing it skillfully and elevating our experience of communal worship.

►I am particularly grateful to Raul and Gloria Venzon and their team of volunteer helpers for the spectacular Christmas decorations gracing the church sanctuary, narthex and chapel. Not only did they arrange the placement of flowers and decorations just before Christmas, but they also spent hours during the week, unbeknownst to most of us, carefully watering and maintaining the plants, keeping them healthy and presentable during the holiday season and beyond.

►A big thank you to our liturgical ministry team including Lectors, Eucharistic

Ministers, Altar Servers, Mass Coordinators, Ushers and Greeters, for their faithful and excellent service. Among the unsung heroes of our parish are the church and chapel livestream technicians who transmit the images and sounds of St Gilbert liturgies on our YouTube and Facebook channels. Heartfelt thanks to Cathy Phillips, Mark Meyer, Cathy Green, Daniel Green, and Steve Serres, for their commitment to this important ministry. I'm aware of those who, being unable to join us in person, join us remotely via livestream. One does have to marvel at the unlimited potential of electronic media, especially as a tool for evangelization and outreach with the Gospel of Christ.

►Huge thanks to our parish and school staff for all their hard work at Christmastime and throughout the year. I wish to express my gratitude to our maintenance staff, Juan Fernandez and his team of college students for working so hard to make the outdoor Christmas decoration beautiful.

We're grateful to God for guiding us through the past year with its challenges and blessings, and we seek his continued blessing of health, safety and peace in the New Year.

►Finally, a special thank you to the entire St Gilbert family, whether a household of one or a dozen, for your inspiring witness of faith in Jesus Christ and loving devotion to his Blessed Mother. Let's continue, as written in Psalm 96, to proclaim God's marvelous deeds to all the nations, announcing his salvation day after day, telling his glory among the nations; among all peoples, his wondrous deeds.

►On behalf of the clergy, myself, Fr. Gus and Deacons Tom, Brian & Jean, once again, THANK YOU for every gesture of kindness and support to our Parish! May the good Lord bless you abundantly!

Fr. Mario

GOSPEL

After you were baptized, the Holy Spirit came to help you do great things for God. Forgive someone who really hurts you. Invite someone who is usually left out to your party. Take care of the sick. Feed those without food. Do these things. They show that you love God above all and your neighbor as yourself. Then God will say to you, "I love this child of mine and am very pleased with you."

As a young priest, John of the Cross (1542-1591) is confronted with the corruption of his Carmelite Order, and sets out to live a truly contemplative life. His religious brothers, resenting his holiness and asceticism and his efforts to reform the order, imprison him in a closet for nine torturous months. Undaunted, there he composes much of his immortal poetry, and enters into a mystical union with God. His harrowing escape is miraculous. The saint's moving poem, "The Spiritual Canticle," weaves throughout the film, enriching the story and granting insight into what it means to persevere in love when confronted with suffering. In this audio drama adapted from Leonardo DeFilippis's one-man stage performance, you'll enter more deeply into the "Living Flame of Love" that burned in the heart of John of the Cross.

Eucharistic Adoration...

Start the New Year by spending time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament.

In the quiet of His presence, find peace, guidance, and strength for the year ahead. Jesus awaits you in this sacrament of love. ALL ARE WELCOME! Whether you commit to a specific hour or simply stop in for a visit, Jesus will be there with you.

Please join us on most Wednesdays from 9:00am to 9:00pm in the St. Gilbert Chapel.

NOTE: We are seeking regular Adorers for the 12:00 pm, 2:00 pm and 8:00 pm hours!

If you have any questions, please contact Sue Schoen 847.651.7902 or Nancy Ogrinc 847.727.0822.

READING I ISAIAH 42:1-4, 6-7

Thus says the LORD:
Here is my servant whom I uphold,
my chosen one with whom I am pleased,
upon whom I have put my spirit;
he shall bring forth justice to the nations,
not crying out, not shouting,
not making his voice heard in the street.
a bruised reed he shall not break,
and a smoldering wick he shall not quench,
until he establishes justice on the earth;
the coastlands will wait for his teaching.

I, the LORD, have called you for the victory
of justice,
I have grasped you by the hand;
I formed you, and set you
as a covenant of the people,
a light for the nations,
to open the eyes of the blind,
to bring out prisoners from confinement,
and from the dungeon, those who live in darkness.

RESPONSORIAL PSALM:

The Lord will bless his people with peace.

READING II ACTS 10:34-38

Peter proceeded to speak to those gathered in the house of Cornelius, saying:
“In truth, I see that God shows no partiality.
Rather, in every nation whoever fears him
and acts uprightly
is acceptable to him.

You know the word that he sent to the Israelites
as he proclaimed peace through Jesus Christ,
who is Lord of all,
what has happened all over Judea,
beginning in Galilee after the baptism
that John preached,
how God anointed Jesus of Nazareth
with the Holy Spirit and power.

He went about doing good
and healing all those oppressed by the devil,
for God was with him.”

GOSPEL MATTHEW 3:13-17

Jesus came from Galilee to John at the Jordan to be baptized by him.

John tried to prevent him, saying,
“I need to be baptized by you,
and yet you are coming to me?”

Jesus said to him in reply,
“Allow it now, for thus it is fitting for us
to fulfill all righteousness.”

Then he allowed him.

After Jesus was baptized,
he came up from the water and behold,
the heavens were opened for him,
and he saw the Spirit of God descending like
a dove

and coming upon him.

And a voice came from the heavens, saying,
“This is my beloved Son, with whom I am well pleased.”

John could not believe that Jesus would seek baptism from him, a lowly mortal man. But our God is a humble God. He does not fear our weakness. He extends his hand, saying, “It is fitting.” So take his hand. Begin the work he has set out for you.

1st Reading

Isaiah speaks of God using a servant to deliver justice to the nations of the world.

When have you felt God calling you to do His work?

2nd Reading

Peter testifies how God and the Holy Spirit were active in the life and public ministry of Jesus. Do you sense the Holy Spirit present in your life?

Gospel:

John the Baptist initially hesitates baptizing Jesus. Do you have a friend or co-worker who needs your encouragement?

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Lessons from Baptizing a Frog

I used to lead an RCIA [OCIA] session on baptism, where I would bring in my Kermit the Frog toy from when I was a child and pretend to baptize it. It was a session I especially made sure I led when we had children preparing for Easter sacraments. You would think Kermit would have become super holy having been baptized so many times, year after year. But, if he had been real, he would not have been any holier due to multiple baptisms than he was after the first baptism. He couldn't be re-baptized. (Not to mention, of course, he is a FROG.)

When Jesus came to John for baptism, he transformed the baptism of repentance that John was practicing into a baptism of redemption. And although we are called to repentance over and over in our life, redemption comes to us only once. We cannot get baptized again in the Jordan or Sea of Galilee because of romantic notions, or come into the Catholic Church by a second baptism so we can start all over. Our baptism, whether we can remember it or not, is a one-time deal. But it is the real deal. Whether you feel it or not, you are sealed for Christ, and the stain of original sin has been washed away.

Too many of us take that moment for granted. Yes, you may have been baptized as an infant. But much time has passed since then, and you can work to understand the impact that it had on your life. We sometimes look for a good time to begin living a stewardship way of life. However, that time already passed, and God has been waiting. We are called to reflect on our baptism and respond to the call it has placed on our lives. We can respond and be disciples, or we can be like Kermit the Frog, always searching for a new start that never comes.
