November: A Month to Remember and Pray for the Faithful Departed

ST. GILBERT PARISH

Praying for the dead is not simply remembering the past. It is an act of faith, hope, and charity.

Remembering Our Loved Ones at St. Gilbert

Throughout November, our parish will offer special opportunities to remember and pray for the faithful departed.

November Masses for the Faithful Departed

Throughout November, we will celebrate Mass on Monday and Thursday evenings at 7:00 PM, offering our prayers for all those who have died.

All Souls Memorial Cards – Remembering Your Loved Ones

Throughout November, we invite parishioners to remember their deceased family members, friends, and loved ones through our All Souls Memorial Cards.

Cards and envelopes are available in the narthex. Simply take one home, print the names of those you wish to remember, indicate the weekend Mass you normally attend, and return the completed card and envelope to the narthex.

The names of your loved ones will be read aloud before your designated weekend Mass throughout November, and we will remember them in our prayers. Additional names may be submitted throughout the month.

Together, as a parish family, we entrust our faithful departed to God's infinite mercy and love.

A Gift of Love that Continues Beyond Death

As we enter this month of remembrance, may we never underestimate the power of praying for those who have died.

Perhaps there is someone you have not prayed for in many years. Perhaps someone you love died recently, and your heart still carries the pain of that loss. Or perhaps there are souls who have no one left on earth to remember them in prayer.

Let Us Pray for Them All.

Our prayers are a gift of love we can continue to offer, even after death. And through the mercy of Jesus Christ, may we all one day be reunited in the joy of heaven.

Eternal rest grant unto them, O Lord,
and let perpetual light shine upon them.
May they rest in peace. Amen.

FANNIE MAY CANDY SALE IS HERE

Thank you for supporting the REP fundraiser. The product will arrive the week of November 15. You will be notified when the product arrives.

A Catholic Conversation about Pre-Planning a Funeral for Yourself or a Loved One

Some conversations are more difficult than others. Perhaps the hardest, at least for most of us, is the conversation regarding our death and making final arrangements for ourselves and our loved ones.

Join us on Thursday, November 19th, at 7:45pm, immediately following the Purgatorial Mass in the Saint Gilbert Parish Center Multi-Purpose Room, where we will discuss the advantages of pre-planning your Catholic Funeral and answer any questions you may have so you can be prepared when that most difficult day arrives.
There will also be a discussion on the topics of Anointing of the Sick (when should you call and the Grace that flows from that Sacrament); why a Funeral Mass is so important; and the Church's teaching on cremation.

The Bereavement Team will be present to share the necessaries associated with a funeral Mass at St. Gilbert.

GRADES 7-9…

The Fall Syllabus was emailed to those who are registered. Several classes are in session.

SACRAMENT CLASSES…

If you are interested in preparing your son/daughter to receive the Sacraments of Reconciliation and First Communion, call the office for information.

REGISTRATION FORMS FOR 2026-2027... It is not too late to register for this year: 2026-2027. Call the office!

OPEN HOUSE...

Grade 1 students have an open house for parents and grandparents on Sunday, Nov. 15 at 9:30 am (during class) in the Chapel. The students say the prayers – Sign of the Cross, Our Father, and Hail Mary, sing some of their favorite songs, and share the theme from one of the chapters in the textbook.

CELEBRATE THANKSGIVING...

The Preschool and Kindergarten Students celebrate Thanksgiving on Sunday, November 22 at 9:30am in the Multi-Purpose Room. Parents & grandparents are invited to this feast.

GOSPEL

You do not know the day or hour when God will come for you. Be prepared with the flashlight of your soul. Love God with your whole mind, heart, and soul. Love your neighbor as yourself. When you follow these two commandments, it lights up your soul. When you forget to obey them, your light grows dim. Put a flashlight and extra batteries by your bed to show God that you are ready for him.

PRAYER

Lord, thank you for loving me and forgiving me.

SPRED – Religious Education for Children with Special Needs…

This program serves 28 students, ranging in age from 6 to 16, from St. Gilbert and neighboring parishes.

If you have any questions about the program or to volunteer, email or call Sr. Donna.
We have a new student in SPRED and need another adult helper. Call the RE Office if you can help.

Pictures are from the SPRED A session.

EUCHARISTIC ADORATION

Spend time with Our Lord, who conquered death and brings new life! Whether you stay for a few minutes or a full Holy Hour, Jesus is present and He is waiting for you!

Join us on (most) Wednesdays from 9:00am-9:00pm in the Saint Gilbert Chapel.

We are seeking a permanent adorer for the 1pm hour. Is this YOU?

Please contact Sue Schoen 847.651.7902 or Nancy Ogrinc 847.727.0822 for more information!

READING 1 WISDOM 6:12-16

Resplendent and unfading is wisdom,
and she is readily perceived by those who love her,
and found by those who seek her.
She hastens to make herself known in anticipation of their desire;
Whoever watches for her at dawn shall not be disappointed,
for he shall find her sitting by his gate.
For taking thought of wisdom is the perfection of prudence,
and whoever for her sake keeps vigil
shall quickly be free from care;
because she makes her own rounds, seeking those worthy of her,
and graciously appears to them in the ways,
and meets them with all solicitude.

Responsorial Psalm:

MY SOUL IS THIRSTING FOR YOU, O LORD MY GOD.

READING 2 1 THESSALONIANS 4:13-18

We do not want you to be unaware, brothers and sisters,
about those who have fallen asleep,
so that you may not grieve like the rest, who have no hope.
For if we believe that Jesus died and rose,
so too will God, through Jesus,
bring with him those who have fallen asleep.
Indeed, we tell you this, on the word of the Lord,
that we who are alive,
who are left until the coming of the Lord,
will surely not precede those who have fallen asleep.
For the Lord himself, with a word of command,
with the voice of an archangel and with the trumpet of God,
will come down from heaven,
and the dead in Christ will rise first.
Then we who are alive, who are left,
will be caught up together with them in the clouds to meet the Lord in the air.
Thus we shall always be with the Lord.
Therefore, console one another with these words.

GOSPEL MATTHEW 25:1-13

When Jesus told his disciples this parable:
"The kingdom of heaven will be like ten virgins who took their lamps and went out to meet the bridegroom.
Five of them were foolish and five were wise.
The foolish ones, when taking their lamps,
brought no oil with them,
but the wise brought flasks of oil with their lamps.
Since the bridegroom was long delayed,
they all became drowsy and fell asleep.
At midnight, there was a cry,
'Behold, the bridegroom! Come out to meet him!'
Then all those virgins got up and trimmed their lamps.
The foolish ones said to the wise,
'Give us some of your oil,
for our lamps are going out.'
But the wise ones replied,
'No, for there may not be enough for us and you.
Go instead to the merchants and buy some for yourselves.'
While they went off to buy it,
the bridegroom came
and those who were ready went into the wedding feast with him.
Then the door was locked.
Afterwards the other virgins came and said,
'Lord, Lord, open the door for us!'
But he said in reply,
'Amen, I say to you, I do not know you.'
Therefore, stay awake,
for you know neither the day nor the hour."

For the proper use of wealth
Let us pray for the proper use of wealth, that not succumbing to the temptation of selfishness, it may always be put at the service of the common good and solidarity of those who have less.

1st Reading
According to our Jewish sage, wisdom is a virtue that desires to be known by those who seek her. How does anyone know they have found wisdom?

2nd Reading
Paul offers hope in the bodily resurrection of the dead for the Thessalonians who are grieving the death of a loved one. How does your faith in Jesus sustain you in times of grief and distress?

Gospel:
In the Parable of the Ten Virgins, Jesus teaches his disciples the importance of planning ahead for the unknown. Do you consider yourself a pre-planner?

In today's Gospel Jesus challenges us to "stay awake" by taking time to seriously look at ourselves, the priorities of our lives, and how we are growing spiritually.

Ask yourself "What would Jesus Christ do?" and then put your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box so that those who are suffering will be able to celebrate Thanksgiving. God Bless You!

The Christian life is a life of waiting, for the Bridegroom is long delayed. We can grow too comfortable in the waiting that we forget what it's all for. So let us look to our lamps and always remember — the waiting will not last forever.

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

In Our Midst

One day my son came downstairs in our house and went into the kitchen to get himself a bowl of cereal. He had no idea I was in the front room quietly reading something on my smartphone. He poured his milk and reached to grab a spoon. At that moment, I simply said, "Hello." Startled, he jumped back from the silverware drawer and let out a scream. He would tell this story differently, but it certainly was a scream. He clutched his chest as if he had just seen a ghost. All I wanted to do was say hello.

We have all been startled by someone when we thought we were all alone. Sometimes that person in our midst was simply quiet and hidden from our view. Other times, we simply have our head and mind in the clouds to the point we are ignoring the fact we are not alone.

At times that person we don't see is Jesus. He might seem quieter some days, but he should never be hidden from our view. He is always there with us, in others, and sharing our everyday moments. When we fail to see him in our midst, it is easy to act in ways we wouldn't if we saw him directly in front of us. We become less giving and more self-centered. No one wants to be surprised one day when suddenly they realize they were not alone, especially if the one who startles us is our God.
