PRAYING FOR PEACE

Let us pray for our communities, our cities and the world, especially Eastern Europe; For strength and peace in the face of war and violence; For openness and welcome to refugees; For hope and courage in the face of doubt and fear. Amen.

BRING CHRIST TO THE WORLD THROUGH YOUR LEGACY

As we stand before God's promise to make all things new, please consider one of the greatest acts of stewardship by including a gift to our parish in one of the following ways:

- Will or Trust
- Retirement Assets
- Life Insurance Policies
- Charitable Gift Annuity

For more information, please contact Sandra Garrity, Business Manager, at 847.223.4731 OR email sgarrity@stgilbert.org OR visit myimpact.archchicago.org

Everyday Stewardship

Many young people want to make a path for themselves in life without the help and guidance of others. My own young adult son oftentimes refuses assistance because he feels that he must learn to go it alone and have his achievements based solely upon his effort. However, few truly get anywhere of circumstance without the aid of others.

The body of Christ only functions well when we move together and help each other. Unfortunately, too often parts of the body seek to do their own thing and do not integrate with the other parts. We use our gifts in ways that are only focused on our own gains and our own being. But be mindful, our gifts exist in us to be cultivated and shared with God and his people.

In the same manner, with Jesus as the head of this body, he is there for us as well. In Jesus we find our rest and assistance with our burdens. I cannot imagine life without the compassion and aid of our God. If it isn't bad enough that some people fail to lean on their brothers and sisters, some of them fail to ever turn to God.

This is never good stewardship. A stewardship way of life seeks to share and integrate with others, especially Jesus. We have been created for community. If we take seriously our discipleship, a true relationship with Jesus always beckons us into community with other believers. Here we are strongest. Here we are the most fruitful. Here we are Christ's body on earth.

Optional Memorial

SOME PEOPLE celebrate birthdays. Others don't. The day has real significance for some people, but not for others. However, the birthdays of George Washington, Abraham Lincoln, and Martin Luther King Jr. have taken on national importance. Everybody celebrates those.

On our Church calendar, we have a number of days set aside as memorials to honor our saints. Some of them—such as Thomas Aquinas (January 28), Augustine (August 28), and St. Thérèse of the Child Jesus (October 1)—are so important that everybody celebrates them. Others—such as Rose of Lima (August 23), Turibius de Mogrovejo (March 23), and Elizabeth of Portugal (July 4)—are significant for smaller groups. When these days fall during the week, the Mass contains special prayers to honor these saints. Although every church celebrates the days of certain saints as memorials, the days of other saints are optional memorials. Your own parish church may choose whether or not to celebrate those days.

Some optional memorials are quite popular. For example, Patrick (March 17), Nicholas (December 6), and Maria Goretti (July 6) have many followers. Other saints are more obscure.

Because of the large number of saints, the calendar includes some flexibility. It adapts to local devotions and to the spiritual needs of worshipers.

When an optional memorial falls on a weekday, you need not celebrate it at all. You may just have an ordinary day. But when your parish chooses to take the option at a weekday Mass, you may hear prayers that pertain directly to the saint, especially the Collect (Opening Prayer) of the liturgy. The Scriptures may also vary to help people reflect on the special gifts and devotion of the saint. Whenever an optional memorial coincides with a Sunday or another day of higher rank on the calendar, we omit its celebration that year.

GOSPEL

When you are tired and upset, go to God. Talk things over with him. Tell him the whole story. God is a good listener. He has a gentle heart. He will say to you, "I love you. I forgive you." Then snuggle up with your favorite blanket and take a nap. When you wake up, you will feel much better. Then you will share your love by saying, "May I help you?"

PRAYER

Lord Jesus, fill me with love for my family, friends, and neighbors.

WHY COMMIT TO ONE HOUR OF EUCHARISTIC ADORATION?

There are many reasons to commit to spending time with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament, many of which can be found in Scripture. The most important is that Jesus is REALLY there!

Mother Teresa went so far as to say this about our time in the Eucharist:

"The time you spend with Jesus in the Blessed Sacrament is the best time that you will spend on earth. Each moment that you spend with Jesus will deepen your union with Him and make your soul everlastingly more glorious and beautiful in heaven and will help bring about an everlasting peace on earth."

If you are able to commit to one hour a week with the One who loves you unconditionally, come to the Chapel on Wednesdays from 9am to 9pm. If possible, please considering committing to a weekly hour or as a substitute adorer. At this time, we are most in need of adorers for the 10-11am and the 11am-Noon hours.
