A Catholic Conversation about Pre-Planning a Funeral for Yourself or a Loved One

Some conversations are more difficult than others. Perhaps the hardest, at least for most of us, is the conversation regarding our death and making final arrangements for ourselves and our loved ones.

Join us on Thursday, November 19th, at 7:30pm, immediately following the Purgatorial Mass in the Saint Gilbert Parish Center Multi-Purpose Room, where we will discuss the advantages of pre-planning your Catholic Funeral and answer any questions you may have so you can be prepared when that most difficult day arrives.

There will also be a discussion on the topics of Anointing of the Sick (when should you call and the Grace that flows from that Sacrament); why a Funeral Mass is so important; and the Church's teaching on cremation.

The Bereavement Team will be present to share the necessaries associated with a funeral Mass at St. Gilbert.

Sharing Parish Winter Coat Drive

Final collection weekend! New or slightly used winter coats for the kids, as well as adults and accessories (bagged please!) may be dropped off after mass through THIS Sunday, in the St Gilbert Church Library. Thank you! READING 1 PROVERBS 31:10-13, 19-20, 30-31

When one finds a worthy wife,
her value is far beyond pearls.
Her husband, entrusting his heart to her,
has an unfailing prize.
She brings him good, and not evil,
all the days of her life.
She obtains wool and flax
and works with loving hands.
She puts her hands to the distaff,
and her fingers ply the spindle.
She reaches out her hands to the poor,
and extends her arms to the needy.
Charm is deceptive and beauty fleeting;
the woman who fears the LORD is to be praised.
Give her a reward for her labors,
and let her works praise her at the city gates.

Responsorial Psalm:

BLESSED ARE THOSE WHO FEAR THE LORD.

READING 2 1 THESSALONIANS 5:1-6

Concerning times and seasons, brothers and sisters,
you have no need for anything to be written to you.
For you yourselves know very well that the day of the Lord will come like a thief at night.
When people are saying, "Peace and security, "
then sudden disaster comes upon them,
like labor pains upon a pregnant woman,
and they will not escape.

But you, brothers and sisters, are not in darkness,
for that day to overtake you like a thief.
For all of you are children of the light
and children of the day.
We are not of the night or of darkness.
Therefore, let us not sleep as the rest do,
but let us stay alert and sober.

GOSPEL MATTHEW 25:14-30

Jesus told his disciples this parable:
"A man going on a journey
called in his servants and entrusted his possessions to them.
To one he gave five talents; to another, two; to a third, one--
to each according to his ability.
Then he went away.
Immediately the one who received five talents went and traded with them,
and made another five.
Likewise, the one who received two made another two.
But the man who received one went off and dug a hole in the ground and buried his master's money.

"After a long time
the master of those servants came back and settled accounts with them.
The one who had received five talents came forward bringing the additional five.
He said, 'Master, you gave me five talents.
See, I have made five more.'
His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant.
Since you were faithful in small matters,
I will give you great responsibilities.
Come, share your master's joy.'
Then the one who had received two talents also came forward and said,
'Master, you gave me two talents.
See, I have made two more.'
His master said to him, 'Well done, my good and faithful servant.
Since you were faithful in small matters,
I will give you great responsibilities.
Come, share your master's joy.'
Then the one who had received the one talent came forward and said, 'Master, I knew you were a demanding person, harvesting where you did not plant
and gathering where you did not scatter;

so out of fear I went off and buried your talent in the ground.
Here it is back.'
His master said to him in reply, 'You wicked, lazy servant!
So you knew that I harvest where I did not plant and gather where I did not scatter?
Should you not then have put my money in the bank
so that I could have got it back with interest on my return?
Now then! Take the talent from him and give it to the one with ten.
For to everyone who has,
more will be given and he will grow rich;
but from the one who has not,
even what he has will be taken away.
And throw this useless servant into the darkness outside,
where there will be wailing and grinding of teeth.'"

October 1, 2026

Dear brothers and sisters,

Please accept my invitation to participate in the Catholic Church's Synod on Synodality, a global process designed to foster listening, dialogue, and discernment across the Church. This invitation is for everyone, as Pope Francis said, for "todos, todos, todos."

The Archdiocese of Chicago is ready to take the next step to live and implement Synodality in our local Church. Synodality was a practice that began in the early Church. It continues now as a way of "walking together," which is the art of listening to the Holy Spirit through our shared experience of faith.

Beginning this fall, the Archdiocese of Chicago will hold local gatherings, "Conversations in the Spirit." These are opportunities to come together to pray with and listen to one another and notice where the Holy Spirit is moving among us.

Then, on June 12, 2027, archdiocesan representatives will gather for an ecclesial assembly on the Lake Shore campus of Loyola University Chicago to celebrate our growth with one another through prayer, listening and learning, and to dialog about ways of what it means to be a synodal and listening Church in Chicago.

Fruits gathered from these listening sessions will be gathered into a synthesis report that will then be passed on to the U.S. Conference of Catholic Bishops (USCCB). The USCCB then will collect reports from U.S. archdioceses and dioceses and send them to a global gathering in Rome in 2028. This is truly a unique moment for our Archdiocese and our Church.

Please consider joining us for a listening session in your area. Sessions will be held from November into February throughout the Archdiocese of Chicago. Other sessions will be offered for various affinity groups. Please consider registering for the session to which you feel most called.

To learn more about the synodal process, visit www.archchicago.org/synodality. You can also register at this link for a regional listening session.

I am grateful for your openness to this process. Please join us to listen more closely to one another and to see the movement of the Holy Spirit in our lives and in our Church.

Sincerely yours,

+ Timothy J. O'Malley

EVERYDAY STEWARDSHIP

Buried in Your Backyard

I remember watching a television show about a high school that dug up a time capsule that students had buried twenty-five years earlier. They had buried it with the purpose of showing others many years later the trends of the day and how student life was at that time. It was a fun exercise and everyone--the current students as well as those now grown--laughed at the clothing styles, corny photos, and lack of technology from years ago.

I wonder how the former students felt about how they had grown in those twenty-five years. How many of them realized their high school dreams? Did they find their purpose in this world and feel fulfilled in life? Did they use the talents and gifts God gave them to really make a difference in the world?

We have all been given talents and gifts by God to be cultivated and offered back to him and those around us for his glory. As time has passed, hopefully we have taken seriously our stewardship of these gifts. But sometimes out of fear, misunderstanding, or even apathy, we have taken one or more of our gifts and buried them, hiding them away from others and stifling all growth. This is no way to honor God and certainly not a path to fulfillment in life. If we have anything buried in our backyard we might do well to dig it back up, clean it up, and begin building upon it. Like a time capsule, those things will not be buried forever. One day the giver of that gift will ask what you have done with it. When that day comes, I pray you don't need to find a shovel.
