Heb 5:7-9

Jn 12:20-33

(See page 6 for

Always Near

Loving Father,
you who answer when I call,
who continue to love me,
even when I fall,
you are ever present and merciful.
May I be a mirror of your promises.
Never let me stray too far from your gaze.
May your hand never be far
from mine.
Through Christ our Lord. Amen.

COVENANT OF LOVE

On this Fifth Sunday of Lent, the readings begin by recalling the covenant God made with the chosen people. The Lord tells the prophet Jeremiah, "I will place my law within them and write it upon their hearts; I will be their God, and they shall be my people." In the covenant that God keeps with us today, he offers us eternal life. Jesus refers to that life in the Gospel reading, saying, "Whoever loves his life loses it, and whoever hates his life in this world will preserve it for eternal life."

The first reading explains that all shall know God, for he "will forgive their evildoing and remember their sin no more." In the second covenant, Jesus lays down his life for us on the cross, erasing our sins and reconciling us with God. The Letter to the Hebrews explains that Christ "became the source of eternal salvation for all who obey him."

To obey God, to have a place for him in our hearts, we seek a pure heart, praying from Psalm 51, "Create a clean heart in me, O God." In this psalm, we ask not only that our souls be cleansed of sin but for a steadfast and willing spirit. How will you carry this psalm with you through this week so that you can be true to the love God offers? How can this psalm turn you to God's presence so that you might be a walking testimony of his love?

JOHN 12:24

FIRST READING:

Through the prophet Jeremiah, God promised Israel "a new covenant": the Lord's law will be written in our hearts and known by all who believe. Do you know people who seem to have a heart-felt faith?

SECOND READING:

Hebrews teaches us that Jesus struggled with his own impending suffering and death. During this Lenten season, what has been a struggle for you?

GOSPEL:

Jesus taught that through his own suffering and death, he would drive out the "ruler of this world" (Satan) and draw everyone to himself. In what ways are you drawn to Christ?

©LPi

In the Gospel today, Jesus says "Whoever serves me must follow me, and where I am, there also will my servant be."

The Father will honor whoever serves me." When we help the poor, we are truly followers of Jesus, servant of the poor.

As you place your gift in the Society of St. Vincent de Paul poor box, know that you are a sign of God's love to those who are suffering, and you give them Easter hope and joy.
God Bless You!
